16. SUSPENSION AND CLOSURE OF ACCOUNTS OR SERVICES

- 16.1 The Bank may without liability for any Liabilities close any Account by 14 days' (or such other period as the Bank may specify from time to time) notice to the customer without disclosing any reason for the closure. The Bank may discharge its liability to the customer for the moneys in the closed Account by any method it deems fit (including by mailing to the customer at the last address notified to the Bank a cashier's order or a draft) in the currency of the deposit or its equivalent in an alternative currency selected by the Bank or any other method it deems fit if any restriction or prohibition is imposed on the convertibility, transferability or availability of the currency of deposit.
- 16.2 Notwithstanding clause 16.1, the Bank has no obligation to give prior notice to the customer for closure of Account, if closure is required by regulation, law, court order or as directed by any governmental or competent authority or the police.
- 16.3 An Account may be closed at the Bank's discretion if the customer withdraws the whole of the balance in the Account or when the balance becomes zero.
- 16.4 The customer will not claim against the Bank for any damages which may be incurred from closing the Account.
- 16.5 Upon the closure of an Account, whether by the customer or the Bank, all unused cheques issued to the customer in relation to that Account shall forthwith be returned to the Bank, and the customer shall promptly pay the Bank all amounts the customer owes the Bank, including overdrawn amounts, interest, costs and expenses and any other charges the customer owes on the Account or for other services or products provided by the Bank. Such obligations on the customer shall survive the termination of these Terms and Conditions.
- 16.6 The Bank may, without liability for any Liabilities to the customer, suspend operation of any or all Accounts and/or services at any time at the Bank's discretion including, without limitation, if as a result of any act, matter or thing beyond the Bank's control, the Bank's records, accounts or services are not available or access thereto is hindered, or if the Bank receives contradicting instructions in relation to the Account, or becomes aware that there is a dispute in relation to the Account or upon receipt of a garnishee order or notice of appointment as agent for tax purposes, or if the Account is a Dormant Account.

- 16.7 If the customer goes into liquidation or otherwise ceases business and no successful claim is made on the Account(s) of the customer with the Bank, the Bank may without taking any further steps close such Account, whereupon any credit balance standing to such Account shall forthwith belong to the Bank and the Bank may treat it as such.

17. CUSTOMER'S DUTIES

- 17.1 The customer shall promptly notify the Bank in writing of any variation to his signature or that of the authorised signatory(ies), change in the signature requirements, change of signatory(ies), address or other relevant particulars (including, without limitation, any change of citizenship, residence, tax residency, telephone or facsimile numbers, or any change of partners or directors, shareholders, nature of business, corporate or other approvals and any amendments to constitutional documents). The Bank shall be entitled to a reasonable period of time (of at least 7 business days from actual receipt) to process any notification of change. The Bank shall not be responsible or liable for any loss or damage suffered or incurred by the customer in the course of the notice period for processing such variations and/or changes.
- 17.2 A statement of account will be rendered to the customer once a month or at such periodic basis as the Bank may from time to time determine where one or more transactions have taken place in that period in relation to the Account. Where the Bank determines that the customer's Account is a Dormant Account, the Bank may stop sending statements of account until such time as the Account becomes active. The customer shall notify the Bank in writing if the customer does not receive the statement of account within 7 days of the expected date of receipt thereof.
- 17.3 In the case of Accounts for which cheque books are issued, the customer shall immediately notify the Bank in writing if he does not receive a cheque book which he has requested within 14 days from the date of his request.
- 17.4 The customer shall not draw cheques, keep cheque books or operate its Account in a manner which may facilitate theft, fraudulent alterations or forgery or which may affect the clearing of the cheque. Upon receipt of a new cheque book, the customer shall check to ensure that its name and Account number are correctly printed on the cheques and that all cheques are intact. The customer shall immediately notify the Bank in writing of any mistake or irregularity in relation to the cheque book or cheques or if it becomes aware of any actual or suspected theft, fraud, forgery or other unauthorised use of its Account, or any other matter concerning its Account that appears suspicious. The customer shall immediately notify the Bank in writing and place a stop payment on the cheque(s) if any cheque book or cheque is stolen, misplaced or lost. The Bank may issue a new cheque book to the customer upon the customer issuing a satisfactory indemnity to the Bank and upon payment of the prevailing prescribed charge and the Bank is authorised to debit the Account with the said charge.
- 17.5 If the seal and/or stamp used by the customer in operating any Account is stolen, misplaced or lost, the customer shall immediately notify the Bank in writing. The Bank shall not be responsible or liable for any loss, damage, costs or expenses incurred by the customer as a result of any payment made or transaction carried out prior to the Bank receiving such written notice.
- 17.6 The customer shall examine all entries in each statement of Account, transaction advice, deposit advice and other record (the "Records") and inform the Bank immediately in writing of any errors in or omissions from or unauthorised transactions in the Records. The contents of each Record shall be deemed accurate and shall be conclusive and binding against the customer and the Bank shall be free from all claims in respect thereof unless the customer informs the Bank in writing of any errors or omissions or unauthorised transactions within the period specified on the Record for such notification or, in the absence of such specification, within 7 days of the date of the Record. Notwithstanding the foregoing, the Bank reserves the right upon notice to the customer to add to and/or amend the entries in a Record in the event of errors in or omissions from or unauthorised entries in such Record. A Record so amended shall be binding on the customer. The Bank may demand a refund of and/or debit the Account and/or set off any credit balance in the Account for any overpayment to the customer arising from any such error, omission or unauthorised transaction.

- 17.7 The customer shall be responsible for ensuring that it has taken precautions to ensure instructions given to the Bank are genuine and that all instructions given to the Bank are complete, accurate and given within the time specified by the Bank from time-to-time and that there are sufficient funds in Account to carry out its instructions.

18. DISCLOSURE

This clause 18 is not, and shall not be deemed to constitute, an express or implied agreement by the Bank with the customer for a higher degree of confidentiality than that prescribed in applicable laws or regulations. Nothing herein shall limit or restrict any other consent to disclosure of information provided by the customer. This clause 18 shall survive the closure or suspension of any Account and the termination of these Terms and Conditions.

19. ANTI MONEY LAUNDERING, SANCTIONS, ANTI BRIBERY AND TAX, COMPLIANCE WITH LAWS

19.1 The customer represents and undertakes that:

- (i) it is and will be responsible for ensuring it complies with its tax obligations;
- (ii) from time to time, the Bank may require information from the customer regarding its tax matters for the purposes of ensuring compliance with laws and regulations and the customer agrees to provide the Bank with such information upon request. Without prejudice to the generality of the foregoing the customer shall provide the Bank with the forms and documents required for compliance with the U.S. Foreign Account Tax Compliance Act ("FATCA") and Common Reporting Standard ("CRS");
- (iii) any information provided to the Bank relating to its tax status including residency or nationality is complete and accurate;
- (iv) it has not committed or been convicted of any tax crime; and
- (v) it will promptly notify the Bank of any change in the information in this clause 19.1.

19.2 The customer acknowledges that the Bank is required to comply with stringent laws and regulations for the prevention of financial crime. The continued availability of the Account and processing of transactions is subject to the customer fulfilling requirements in accordance with such laws and regulations to the satisfaction of the Bank. Without prejudice to the generality of the foregoing, the customer:

- (i) shall cooperate fully in respect of any enquiry that the Bank may make for the purposes of compliance with any applicable law or regulation (as may be amended, re-enacted or replaced from time to time) including but not limited to promptly providing all relevant information, details and/or documents as may be necessary to enable the Bank to comply with the same;
- (ii) shall provide the Bank with such information, documentation and other evidence as requested by the Bank in order for the Bank to carry out and be satisfied it has complied with all "Know Your Customer" and other similar procedures that it is required (or deems desirable) to conduct and, in each case, inform the Bank promptly of any changes;

Further, authorities may from time to time require the disclosure of information. The customer agrees and confirms (unless otherwise notified to the Bank) that all transactions are not connected (directly or indirectly) with any sanctioned country, individual or entity. The customer agrees that if the Bank is required to disclose any information or if a transaction is blocked, frozen, delayed, refused or cancelled because it is claimed to be sanctions-related, the Bank shall not be liable for any information disclosed or for any losses, liabilities, penalties, costs or expenses the customer or the customer's servants or agents may incur and the customer shall promptly indemnify the Bank on demand against any such losses, liabilities, penalties, costs and expenses the Bank may incur. The customer further agrees that any transaction that involves goods, transactions or business relationships directly or indirectly related to a sanctioned country but is permissible under applicable sanctions, shall be on such terms and conditions as agreed by the Bank. Without limiting or reducing the effect of the foregoing, the Bank may refuse to act on any instruction of the customer or delay, block or refuse to process any transaction without incurring any liability if the Bank has reason to suspect that: (i) the instruction or transaction (including carrying out such instruction or transaction by the Bank) may breach any law or regulation; or (ii) the instruction or transaction may directly or indirectly involve the proceeds of, or be applied for the purposes of, any unlawful conduct.
- 19.4 The customer confirms that no transaction involves or will involve (i) any goods, transaction or business relationship directly or indirectly related to North Korea (including, without limitation, transactions through intermediaries or relating or contributing to nuclear or ballistic-related activities or involving North Korean persons, entities or vessels or goods of North Korean origin) or (ii) goods which are regulated as strategic or dual use goods and for which the customer has not obtained the necessary approvals or permits from all relevant authorities.

- 20.2 The Bank shall not be liable for any Liabilities incurred by the customer or for any delay in crediting any Account for any reason whatsoever in the absence of the gross negligence or wilful default of the Bank including, without limitation:
- (i) as a result of computer breakdown, mechanical failure or malfunction, interruption or disruption of services, material alteration of withdrawal requests or other reasons of any kind through no fault of the Bank;
 - (ii) where the Bank is prevented from acting as a result of governmental restrictions, natural

- disaster, strike, war or other circumstances beyond the Bank's control;
- (iii) arising from the exercise by the Bank of its rights under these Terms and Conditions; or
- (iv) where the Bank has acted in reliance on any instruction purporting to be from the customer which has been forged or altered, notwithstanding that such instruction may conflict with any other instruction or contain any error.

Without limiting the foregoing, the Bank shall not be liable for any indirect, consequential or punitive losses notwithstanding the losses arose as a result of the Bank's gross negligence or wilful default.

- 20.3 The Bank shall not be liable for presenting for payment or paying on altered and/or forged cheques where the alterations and/or forgery were made possible by use of erasable ink or any other equipment with erasure features or by use of cheque writers or franking machines or where the alterations and/or forgery cannot be easily detected or where the alteration and/or forgery is due to the customer's negligence or default. The customer shall indemnify the Bank in full for any Liabilities it may incur in presenting or paying on a cheque in any of the foregoing circumstances.
- 20.4 The Bank shall not be liable for presenting for payment or paying on a cheque which has previously been cleared and paid if the duplicate presentation and/or payment cannot be easily detected or where they are caused by the customer's negligence or default. The customer shall indemnify the Bank in full for any Liabilities it may incur in presenting or paying on a cheque in any of the foregoing circumstances.
- 20.5 The Bank shall not be liable for any Liabilities (direct or otherwise) the customer may suffer or incur (including those arising out of delays) in connection with any security processes or checks or any other actions performed by the Bank or any other party for fraud detection, anti-money laundering or combating terrorism financing purposes or for legal or regulatory purposes.
- 20.6 No branch of the Bank in any other jurisdiction, or related corporation of the Bank shall in any case be liable to the customer in respect of the Bank's obligations and/or liabilities under these Terms and Conditions.
- 20.7 In the case of any ambiguity, inconsistency or conflict in the customer's instructions, the Bank may without liability choose not to act upon them unless such ambiguity, inconsistency or conflict has been resolved to the Bank's satisfaction.
- 20.8 The Bank may without liability refuse to accept or act on any instruction from the customer if:
- (i) the Bank is unable to verify the identity of the person giving the instruction; or
 - (ii) the instruction is not in the required or acceptable form.
- 20.9 The Bank shall not be responsible for or liable to the customer for any diminution in value of funds due to taxes or depreciation or for unavailability of currency or funds for withdrawal at any time due to restrictions on convertibility or transfers, exercise of governmental powers, or any other cause beyond the Bank's control. In addition, if any restriction on the availability, conversion or transfer of any currency is imposed, the Bank shall not be obliged to pay the customer the funds in the Account in that currency. The Bank is also not responsible for the effect of laws, regulations, governmental measures or restrictions of any relevant jurisdiction which may be applicable to multi-currency or foreign currency Accounts or the assets of the customer.
- 20.10 Unless otherwise expressly agreed by the Bank in writing, the Bank does not assume any advisory, fiduciary or other duties to the customer.

21. COMMUNICATIONS

- 21.1 All notices and communications to the customer sent by post or left at the last address notified to the Bank shall be deemed to have been received by the customer on the second business day following such posting or on the day it was so left. All notices and communications sent by fax or email to the customer shall be deemed to have been received by the customer on the date and time of transmission. All notices and communications sent to the customer by any other method or medium shall be deemed received when it would have been delivered in the usual course. Any email communication or instruction from the customer to the Bank shall only be deemed to be delivered upon actual receipt by the Bank. The Bank shall not be liable if any communication is delayed, intercepted or lost during delivery or transmission or if the content of such communication is disclosed to third parties during transit. If any communication is returned undelivered, the Bank will not be obliged to send any further communications until the customer updates its Account contact details.

21.2 Where the customer and the Bank have agreed on communications and/or instructions by fax, telephone, email and/or scanned or electronic signature or other electronic means, or other than on the Bank's prevailing standard forms, the following provisions shall apply in the absence of a separate agreement on such communications and/or instructions between the customer and the Bank:

- (i) As a separate and independent obligation, the customer shall fully indemnify the Bank from and against any and all Liabilities which the Bank may incur, sustain or suffer as a consequence of accepting and acting on any fax, telephone, email, scanned or electronically signed or delivered communications and/or instructions from the customer or communications and/or instructions from the customer other than on the Bank's standard forms.
- (ii) The Bank shall not be under any duty to enquire into the authenticity, completeness or accuracy of any communication or instruction and may treat all communications and instructions given or purported to be given by the customer or on the customer's behalf as duly authorised, irrevocable and binding on the customer and genuine, complete and accurate regardless of the circumstances, the nature and/or amount of the transaction and notwithstanding any conflict with other instructions, error, misunderstanding. The Bank may at its discretion without having to provide any reason refuse to act, or delay acting, upon any instructions or such part thereof as the Bank deems appropriate.
- (iii) The customer agrees to deliver to the Bank without delay (and in any event within 2 business days) the original, or a duly signed written confirmation, of any such communication or instruction (each a "Relevant Confirmation") and to indicate clearly that it is in confirmation of the fax, telephone, email, scanned or electronically signed or delivered communication or instruction. The customer agrees that the Bank shall not be liable for any duplication or Liabilities that may arise from the customer's failure so to indicate on each original communication or instruction or Relevant Confirmation as aforesaid.
- (iv) Each communication or instruction by telephone shall be made by the customer's authorised persons whose names and titles the customer has prior to such communication or instruction provided to the Bank in such form as agreed by the Bank. The Bank shall be entitled to assume that there are no changes until the Bank has actually received the written notice of any changes. The Bank may, from time to time, notify the customer of the names of the Bank's officers with whom the customer can transact over the telephone by sending a list of such officers' names to the customer.
- (v) In the event that a call-back confirmation is required according to the Bank's procedures, the customer agrees that the persons authorised to receive such call backs shall be the persons authorised pursuant to paragraph (iv) above. The customer agrees that the Bank has no obligation to perform any call-back confirmation.
- (vi) The customer agrees that its email communications or instructions shall be sent from the email addresses provided to the Bank in such form as agreed by the Bank, and will be sent in a format that prevents alterations to the data in transmissions (e.g. PDF), with no content of the communication or instruction included in the body of the email.
- (vii) In relation to electronic signatures (i.e. e-signatures included on documents accessed from electronic and/or mobile devices via e-signature services), the customer agrees as follows:
 - (a) electronic signatures may only be used for signing such documents as agreed by the Bank in its discretion. The Bank does not need to provide any reason for rejecting the use of electronic signatures and may amend the types of documents for which electronic signatures are accepted at its discretion;
 - (b) notwithstanding sub-paragraph (a) above, the Bank may, in its discretion, require that an original document be submitted in lieu of, or in addition to, any document executed by way of electronic signatures;
 - (c) the customer shall use electronic signatures in a manner that complies with and meets the Bank's processes, procedures, requirements and/or any law or regulation that may be in place from time to time;
 - (d) upon the Bank's request, to provide the Bank with evidence of electronic signing in the form of the relevant activity or transaction log, or any other form of computer or electronic records;

- (e) to ensure that persons authorised by the customer to sign documents via electronic signatures are the same persons as indicated in the signing mandate to the Bank for wet ink signatures;
 - (f) for authentication or verification of the authorised signatories, to provide to the Bank such details as required by the Bank and to keep the Bank informed promptly of any changes. The Bank shall be entitled to assume that there are no changes until it has actually received written notice of any changes;
 - (g) the customer confirms that the electronic signature is the signature of the person to whom it correlates and the electronic signature will be affixed by that person with the intention of signing or approving the electronic record and will be deemed the equivalent of the customer and its authorised signatories' signatures in hard copy, in ink or in original form for all purposes and have similar effect and can be used as evidence in any court, tribunal or in any legal or administrative proceedings and any investigation or inquiry;
 - (h) the customer will not, and will procure that its authorised persons will not, dispute the validity, accuracy or authenticity of any document signed by electronic signature or claim not to have consented to the use of electronic signatures;
 - (i) the customer confirms that each document that is signed electronically is permitted to be signed in that manner by all laws applicable to the customer and by its constitutive documents.
- (viii) The customer acknowledges that transmissions by email or other electronic means and services for electronic signatures are not error free and may involve transmission via servers and/or systems that are not under the Bank's control and email transmissions may not be secure and are subject to risks. Accordingly, the customer agrees that the Bank will not be liable or responsible for, and the customer shall indemnify the Bank for and against, the consequences of such transmission or non-transmission, whether direct or indirect. Without prejudice to the generality of the foregoing, the Bank shall not be liable or responsible, and the customer shall accept full responsibility, for:
- (a) any system or server error, omission, interruption or delay in transmission or failure to perform;
 - (b) any computer virus or corruption or sending of an email to the wrong address;
 - (c) any security breaches or unauthorised access to the contents of the transmission; or
 - (d) the inability to provide or receive the transmission by email as a result of malfunction or failure (total or partial) of any server or system or any other circumstances.
- (ix) No failure by the customer to deliver a Relevant Confirmation or indicate a Relevant Confirmation under paragraph (iii) above, absence of a call-back confirmation under paragraph (v) above or other thing shall invalidate any transaction or indemnity herein.
- (x) The customer undertakes to notify the Bank in writing of any change to the list(s) of the customer's authorised persons to transact with the Bank over the telephone under paragraph (iv) above or receive call backs under paragraph (v) above, and of any change to the email addresses provided to the Bank from which email communications or instructions are to be sent under paragraph (vi) above. Any such notice shall only be effective upon actual receipt by the Bank.
- (xi) Each indemnity given in this clause 21.2 survives the cancellation or revocation of any authority given by the customer in relation to fax, telephone, email, scanned or electronically signed or delivered communications and instructions.
- (xii) Without prejudice to any of the foregoing, the Bank may at any time, at its discretion, amend or vary its policies or procedures in relation to the acceptance of communications or instructions by telephone, fax, email or other electronic means and withdraw, restrict, suspend or terminate the acceptance of instructions delivered by any such means or otherwise than on the Bank's standard forms.

22. CONTRACTS VIA SYSTEM

22.1 The Bank may from time to time provide foreign exchange, fixed deposit, agreed swaps and agreed derivative contracts (the "Service") executed between the customer and the Bank via a system provided by Bloomberg FXGO and/or 360T and/or FXAll and/or such other system or platform as may be agreed by the Bank and the customer (the “System”).

- 22.2 The customer may request the Bank to enter into a foreign exchange, fixed deposit, agreed swap or agreed derivative contract (“Contract Request”) by submitting to the Bank, via the System, information necessary to enable the Bank to decide if it wishes to conclude the Contract Request with the customer. Such Contract Request shall be deemed to have reached the Bank when the Contract Request is actually received by the Bank via the System. The customer may not cancel the Contract Request once it reaches the Bank.
- 22.3 The Bank may determine, at its discretion, whether it will accept a Contract Request. If it agrees to accept the Contract Request, the Bank may conclude a foreign exchange, fixed deposit, swap or derivative contract with the customer on the terms specified in the Contract Request via the System and any such contract so concluded will be deemed to constitute “in writing” for the purpose of any rule, law of any term and condition of the relevant product specific agreement that requires the terms of such transaction to be in writing and expressly waives any right to raise any defence or waiver of liability based on the absence of any such “writing”.
- 22.4 Any Contract Request received by the Bank via the System shall be regarded as a valid request of the customer notwithstanding that:
- (i) the Contract Request was sent in error by the customer;
 - (ii) a system error omission, interruption or delay occurred in respect of the Contract Request; or
 - (iii) the Contract Request is fraudulent or unauthorised.
- The Bank shall have no obligation to verify the validity or authenticity of any Contract Request. The Bank shall assume no liability for any loss or damage incurred by the customer as a result of a transaction entered into based on a Contract Request resulting from any of the circumstances outlined in this clause.
- 22.5 The Bank may change or cease to provide, without prior notice to the customer, all or part of the Service hereunder, including by way of the System, currency pairs, dealing hours, and the upper limit; the Bank shall not be liable for any loss or damage incurred by the customer as a result of such change or cessation.
- 22.6 The Bank shall not be liable for any loss or damage incurred by the customer as a result of unavailability of the Service due to a system failure, trouble in communication equipment or line outage or interruption in the System, delay or failure of transmission or any other cause beyond the Bank’s control.
- 22.7 The Bank shall not be liable for any disclosure of the customer’s information by the System vendor or its agents or subcontractors. The Bank shall not be liable for any Liabilities incurred by the customer as a result of disclosure of information related to the customer’s transactions due to the actions of a third party or unauthorised access in the communication channel of the Service or any other cause beyond the Bank’s control.
- 22.8 The customer shall conclude, at its own expense and risk, a licence agreement regarding the use of the System and shall take all other measures to enable the customer’s lawful use of the System as part of the use of the Service hereunder; if the Bank incurs any Liabilities as a result of infringement of any right of the owners of the System arising from the use of the System by the customer, the customer will compensate and indemnify the Bank for such Liabilities.
- 22.9 If the Service cannot be used for any reason whatsoever, the customer agrees that Contract Requests shall be submitted by such other means as agreed by the Bank.

23. GENERAL

- 23.1 If any provision herein becomes invalid, illegal or unenforceable under any law, the validity, legality or enforceability of the remaining provisions shall not be affected or impaired.
- 23.2 The Bank is entitled to waive compliance with any provision herein, but such waiver shall be without prejudice to the Bank’s right to enforce compliance with any such provision on any other occasion. Any forbearance or failure or delay by the Bank in exercising any right, power or remedy in relation to these Terms and Conditions shall not be deemed to be a waiver of such right, power or remedy, and any single or partial exercise of any right, power or remedy shall not preclude the further exercise thereof and no course of dealing between the customer and the Bank nor any waiver by the Bank in any one or more instances shall be deemed a waiver in any other instance. Each of the Bank’s rights, powers and remedies shall continue in full force and effect until such rights, powers or remedies are specifically amended or waived by an instrument in writing executed by the Bank.

- 23.3 Unless the Bank's prior written consent has been obtained, the customer shall not assign, transfer, charge, pledge or otherwise encumber or dispose of any Account and/or any part of the monies standing to the credit of the Account.
- 23.4 The customer agrees that any sum that may be payable by the Bank to the customer shall be subject to all applicable laws, including without limitation any withholding tax requirement, foreign exchange restriction or control and the Bank may withhold any monies payable to the customer, deposit any such monies into a suspense or other account, and/or retain such monies or take such other action as may be required pending determination of the applicability of such withholding tax requirement, foreign exchange restriction or control or other law.
