(2) Sumitomo Mitsui Banking Corporation (together with any successors and assigns thereof, the "Bank"), and sets out the terms and conditions under and pursuant to which the Bank may provide, and the Customer may use, the Bank's computer-based Services (as defined below).

THE PARTIES HEREBY AGREE as follows:

1. SERVICES

- 1.1 "Service" or "Services" means any or all of the following: certain electronic banking services including but not limited to certain payment and collection services and applications for letters of credit and bankers' guarantees and other ancillary services provided by the Bank from time to time, as described in this Agreement and any manuals provided by the Bank to the Customer from time to time.
- 1.2 Pursuant to the terms and provisions of this Agreement, the Customer may select the Service or Services that it wishes to utilize, and may amend or cancel any of its selection of Services, by completing and returning to the Bank such forms (the "Service Options Forms") as may from time to time be prescribed by the Bank. The Bank has the absolute discretion to decide or change the type of infra-structure, communication medium and technology (collectively, the "Delivery Method") which it adopts for the provision of any or all of the Services. However, if more than one Delivery Method is available, the Customer may select its preferred Delivery Method or amend its selection, by completing and returning to the Bank such forms as may from time to time be prescribed by the Bank. Amendments to the service options and, if applicable, to the Delivery Methods shall supersede all previous selections submitted by the Customer with respect to such Services or Delivery Methods, as the case may be.
- 1.3 Each part of the Service will be accessible at such times (the "Accessible Times") as may be notified by the Bank to the Customer from time to time. In the event of any change to the Accessible Times or if the Service or any part thereof will not be accessible for whatever reason, the Bank shall notify the Customer accordingly by such means as the Bank may in its sole discretion decide notwithstanding the provision of Clause 13.2. The Customer acknowledges that because of hardware or telecommunication limitations, any or all parts of the Service may be unavailable from time to time. The Customer acknowledges that it may not be able to access or use the Service in certain countries if, due to the laws or regulations of those countries, it is not advisable for the Bank to provide such access.
- 1.4 The Customer agrees to provide the Bank with all such information as may be necessary for the utilization of the Services selected by the Customer including, without limitation, information as to designated accounts, persons authorized to provide instructions via the Service and the level of authorization. Such information shall be provided in such form and manner as requested by the Bank or as provided in the applicable manual (as the case may be).
- 1.5 Notwithstanding anything contained in this Agreement, the Bank may at any time modify, withdraw or vary any Service and/or add additional Services. Unless the Bank otherwise notifies the Customer, this Agreement shall continue to apply to the Services regardless of any modifications, withdrawals, variations or additions.

2. CUSTOMER'S INSTRUCTIONS

- 2.1 Subject to review by the Bank against the relevant information provided by the Customer pursuant to Clause 1.4 above, the Bank may treat all apparently valid instructions received via the Service or, where such delivery by the Customer is permitted by the Bank, via data storage devices, as instructions properly authorised by the Customer, regardless of any conflict with the terms of any other mandate the Customer may have given. The Bank shall not be liable to check the authenticity of any apparently valid instruction or the authority of the person(s) giving such instruction and shall be entitled to assume that any such instructions are complete, accurate, valid and duly authorized. The Customer shall be responsible for ensuring that all instructions given to the Bank are complete, accurate and given within the time specified by the Bank from time-to-time and that there are sufficient funds in its account(s) to carry out its instructions.
- 2.2 Unless otherwise agreed, the Bank shall only be required to process and execute any Customer instructions which have been issued in the form and within any applicable time frame prescribed from time to time by the Bank.
- 2.3 The Bank shall be entitled to refrain from or delay in acting or to request the Customer to make changes in its instructions if the Bank, in its sole discretion, decides any of the following events exist or has occurred:-
- (a) the instructions from the Customer may not be genuine or properly authorised;
 - (b) the instructions from the Customer and/or any act of the Bank in carrying out such instructions may be in violation of any law, rule or regulation of any relevant jurisdiction, including, without limitation, the rules of any relevant clearing house or applicable banking practice;
 - (c) the instructions or any part thereof are not clear or not complete or insufficient for the Bank to effect or act upon;
 - (d) the instructions or any part thereof are not provided in accordance with the provisions of this Agreement or any manual applicable from time to time to the operation of the Service;
 - (e) the instructions are provided such that the Bank does not have sufficient time to carry them out at the time specified in the instructions or are provided after the cut-off time for the relevant Service, as determined from time to time by the Bank and notified to the Customer;
 - (f) there are or would be insufficient funds in the Customer's account(s) to carry out the Customer's instructions at the time the Bank is entitled to debit such account(s) in order to execute the instructions; or
 - (g) the Bank decides such inaction or delay is appropriate or necessary in the circumstances of the case including, without limitation, where the circumstances are such that the transaction may not be properly or completely executed.

The Bank shall inform the Customer as soon as reasonably possible of any inaction or delay pursuant to this Clause 2.3. Such notification may be made via the Service or any other method the Bank deems appropriate notwithstanding the provision of Clause 13.2.

- 2.4 If the Customer wishes to retract or modify any instructions in whole or in part, it shall provide the Bank with prior notice of such retraction or modification in writing or by any method permitted by the Bank. The Bank shall use reasonable efforts to comply with such request but shall not be liable for any failure to cancel or modify the instructions.

Upon receipt of notification of Changes and provided that it is able to do so, the Bank shall use reasonable efforts to modify the affected part of interface function in such manner as reasonably required to allow the interface function to be used with the Customer’s computer systems after the Changes have been made. The Bank makes no representation or warranty as to, and accepts no responsibility or liability in relation to:-
