4. Basis of Calculation and Specific Details for the Payment Amount

The issue price is set at the closing price of 3,828 yen on July 11, 2019 which is the business day prior to the day of issuance/allotment decision by the President and Group CEO, for the shares of SMFG common stock on the Tokyo Stock Exchange. Since SMFG shares are floated on the Exchange and there is no reason not to rely on the most recent traded price, it is believed that this price should be appropriate without any arbitrariness, reflecting SMFG's financial standings and demand/supply of the market. Thus, SMFG has concluded that the issue price is not particularly favourable to the Executives being allotted the shares.
