Sumitomo Mitsui Banking Corporation

SMBC Opens Washington D.C. Representative Office

Sumitomo Mitsui Banking Corporation (“SMBC”), a member of Sumitomo Mitsui Financial Group (“SMFG”), announced that it has established a representative office in Washington, D.C. on October 23, 2023.

SMBC is currently among the largest foreign banks in the United States, playing an important role in supporting the nation’s economic growth and financial system. In SMFG’s mid-term management plan, SMFG aspires to further deepen and expand its U.S. business.

Washington, D.C., as the capital of the United States, has been pivotal for finance, politics, economics, and diplomacy not only for the U.S. but also for the world. The Washington D.C. Office will engage in building relationships and exchanging views with key stakeholders, including U.S. financial regulators and government bodies, and strive to advocate for our values of service, respect and integrity.
